We are pleased to announce Southern Oregon Repertory Singers’ 34th season of bringing musical excellence to the Rogue Valley. Our 60-voice choir, under the direction of Dr. Paul French, Director of Choral Studies at Southern Oregon University, explores the exciting universe of choral music from around the world and throughout the ages.

We invite you to attend our performances where you will hear newly-commissioned pieces as well as classic, time-honored works. We guarantee that your heart will be opened and that you will deepen your love of choral music.

She Walks in Beauty

October 26, 2019, 7:30 pm | October 27, 3:00 pm

Come celebrate beauty in its many shapes and guises. Featured works include Ēriks Ešenvalds' “A Drop in the Ocean” and Eric Whitacre’s sensuous settings of Octavia Paz poetry, plus pieces by Heinrich Schütz, Brahms, Paul Mealor, and folksongs from around the world.

December Clear and Bright

December 21, 2019 - 7:30 pm | December 22 - 3:00 pm

Repertory Singers offers its annual celebration of the best in holiday music from the Renaissance to the music of today, including carols old and new from around the world.

Alexander’s Feast: The Power of Music

May 16, 2020, 7:30 pm | May 17, 3:00 pm

Based on a poem by John Dryden, Handel’s “Alexander’s Feast” was such a success it encouraged Handel to switch from composing operas to oratorios. We will perform this lavish piece with a period orchestra of musicians drawn from across the west coast.
