Thank you for considering advertising in Southern Oregon Repertory Singers' programs in our 2019-20 season. Our season consists of 4 concerts each performed twice, so your ad will appear in 8 programs over the course of 8 months. Our concerts draw an average of 400 attendees at each performance, or 3,200 for the entire season.

The majority of our concert-goers live in Ashland, with others from Talent, Phoenix, Medford and Grants Pass. They tend to be highly-educated, highly-engaged and financially-comfortable lovers of the arts. Many of our season subscribers are retired.

If you would like to take advantage of this great opportunity, please call Dennis Read at 614-306-2365 or e-mail to: readwrites@gmail.com

2019-2020 CONCERTS

She Walks in Beauty
October 26, 7:30 pm & October 27, 3:00 pm
Come celebrate beauty in its many shapes and guises. Featured works include Erik Satie's "A Drop in the Ocean" and Eric Whitacre's sensuous settings of Octavia Paz poetry, plus pieces by Heinrich Schütz, Brahms, Paul Meador, and folksongs from around the world.

December Clear and Bright
Dec. 21, 7:30 pm & Dec. 22, 3:00 pm
Repertory Singers offers our annual celebration of the best in holiday music from the Renaissance to the music of today, including carols old and new from around the world.

A Sheen of Dew on Flowers
James M. Collier Festival of New Choral Music
February 29, 7:30 pm & March 1, 3:00 pm
Our third annual festival of new music features an hour-long cantata by English composer Joby Talbot for choir, orchestra, baritone and mezzo soprano soloists.

Alexander's Feast: The Power of Music
May 16, 7:30 pm & May 17, 3:00 pm
Based on a poem by John Dryden, Handel's "Alexander's Feast" was such a success it encouraged Handel to switch from composing operas to oratorios. We will perform this lavish piece with a period orchestra of musicians drawn from across the west coast.

All Concerts are at the
